1. Welcome back to Miss Blanchard who returns from maternity leave on Tuesday.
2. Congratulations to all who exhibited their work in the Art and Design Exhibition last week. It was again to a very high standard. Thank you to Miss Wood in particular and to staff and students who made the Exhibition possible and such a successful event.
3. Congratulations to Mrs Jan Owen who was appointed to the position of Teacher of English for September. We look forward to working with her.
4. Thank you to departments for hosting Governors' visits last week and to Mr Keveth for delivering Safeguarding training to Governors.
5. I am pleased to announce that we are nearer to having a covered outdoor space and servery for students following completion of the tendering process for a new Catering Contractor. Thank you to Mr Green for all his work with this.
6. GCSE examinations start this week. Please remind students to observe exam zone conditions, diversions etc and to respect the signs for silence when required. Would staff be pro-active in establishing the necessary conditions for this new exam season, ensuring all observe our expectations. Due to examinations, the timing of lunch will change from Monday 12 May until Thursday 12 June inclusive to 12.25-1.10pm.
7. As part of the PSCHE theme "Learning to Learn", students will look at their attendance during tutor time. Please use the slides as an aid to discuss the link between attendance and attainment. Individual student attendance information can be found in tutor packs.
8. Plans for The Integrated Health Centre for the Academy are progressing well. I am meeting with Lead Professionals for Nursing and Mental Health this week to broker services.

Miss Jenkins, Headteacher
