Bulletin Notices from Miss Jenkins

1. Very many thanks and congratulations to Ms Turon and all of the staff and students involved in the school production 'A Midsummer's Dream'. The performances were magical and the quality of acting and dancing were superb. Local primary school pupils also enjoyed the matinee performance on Wednesday.
2. Thank you to Mr Crean for accompanying students to Cornwall's Best Dance Crew on Tuesday 15th at Newquay Tretherras School. Our crew was made up of Rosie Pike, Kirsty Gibson, Brittany Charity, Meryn Jaycock and Charlie Paige, almost all Cornish secondary schools were represented. The girls were placed in the top 5, narrowly missing out on the medal honours but represented themselves and their school excellently.
3. Thank you to the Humanities department for hosting the Senior Leadership Team in their review. The next department to be reviewed will be the New Technologies department this week.
4. This week the focus is on Year 9 who will be issued with their Options Booklets on Tuesday at the Curriculum Pathways Evening. They also received their full report before half term and will have their Parents' Evening on Thursday. Please finalise appointments with parents/carers. Estimated grades for the new English Baccalaureate have been included with the reports. We will be advising parents of the importance of this new measure.
5. Thank you to all staff for organising the Discovery Days and Citizenship and Enterprise activities before half term. I am pleased that students' attendance was particularly good and would commend the mature and positive attitude of Year 10. It is important that we discuss any necessary intervention strategies for Year 10 students who are not achieving their full potential. This will be an agenda item for Leaders of Learning next week.
6. Reminder that Discovery Day planning opportunities are Tuesday 1st March if required and at department meetings on the 15th. All teaching staff should have been notified of the reimbursement of PPA time for Discovery Days before half term. Mr Damerell will advise teaching staff in advance of next week's Discovery Day of adjustments to PPA time.
7. The ICT rooms 116 and 006 have been refurbished during the half term holiday and will remain out of action this week. Please see under bulletin notices for the rooming arrangements for this week.
