- 1. Thank you to PC Turner-Moore, Youth Intervention Officer for Devon and Cornwall Police for delivering a Hate Crime assembly and workshop for Year 9 last week.
- 2. The Looe Music Festival will be held this weekend. Our students will perform on the Trewithen Dairy Stage, Quayside Centre in West Looe at 3.15pm on Sunday, which is free to attend. Well done to Jo Winnett in 11 PEN who was shortlisted in the top three of the Young Songwriter of the Year award which was run in conjunction with the Festival. Safety at the festival will feature in a special assembly on Friday when we will be joined by the police. A letter regarding safety at the festival will be sent to parents/carers this week.
- 3. Good luck to the students who are competing in the Schools' Sailing Regatta on Wednesday.
- 4. We look forward to welcoming back Olympian Michaela Breeze for this year's Bydh Gwella Gylli launch on Thursday. Michaela will lead on an extended whole school assembly and then meet new Year 7 students; this will be followed by one to one mentoring sessions.
- 5. Thank you to Mrs Kevern for running a new Book Club/Private Reading Club. The club will be based in the COM1 during lunchtimes on Tuesday for Year 7, Wednesday for Year 8 and Thursday for Year 9. Please see Mrs Kevern for more information.
- 6. Thank you to CLEAR (Children Linked to and Experiencing Abusive Relationships) for leading staff and parent information sessions last week. Year 8 students will participate in workshops this week.
- 7. Would students ensure that when they have been given permission to go out of school on a trip that they complete the section in their planner to record the work missed. Students are responsible for completion of this as part of the trip itself.
- 8. IRIS will rotate around PE and MFL this week.

9. Uniform issues should now have been resolved and students now without an exception slip from their tutor as an explanation for not following the school expectations will be issued with detentions.
