Bulletin Notices from Miss Jenkins

1. Thank you to Mr Saddler, Mr Keveth and the Friends of Looe Community School Committee for organising the Quiz Night last Friday which was a great success.
2. Thank you to Miss Green and the maths department for organising the Maths Challenge last week.
3. Thank you to Mr Crean for arranging the Key Stage 4 Leadership Training day at Callington Community College with the Year 10 GCSE PE class.
4. Following the trip arranged by Mrs Palmer to a 'Meet the Examiner' revision workshop at The Sands, Newquay, we have received a letter from Mrs Delf the County Organiser thanking us for organising this and also commented on the 'impeccable behaviour' of the students who went.
5. Thank you to staff for the Year 11 Parents' Evening last Thursday. Please make sure issues are followed up and inform Kelly of those critical students who didn't attend so that these can be followed up too.
6. Thank you to Governors Mrs Morden and Mr Walton who consulted with parents on communication at the Year 11 evening on Thursday. Comments were generally positive, notably that communication has improved.
7. Congratulations to Luke Chapman who has been selected for the England Training Rugby Camp later this month.
8. Please note that exam entries must be entered into Assessment Manager by Tuesday 15th February. Departments will pick up the cost of late entries to Examination Boards.
9. For Year 9 parents/carers - The rearranged 14-19 Options Evening will be on Tuesday 1st March at 7pm. This is when options booklets will be issued and new curriculum presented.
10. Good luck to performers and the staff teams for the school production this week.
11. The bulletin from this week contains the Students' weekly clubs and meetings in one place – see below. Tutors, please make sure that Students' are aware of these.
12. Any member of staff planning a trip or a visit with students must discuss this with Mr Keveth prior to any arrangements being made. Staff must also use the trips and visits checklist which must be signed by Mr Keveth before organising the trip.
13. School closes to students on Thursday 17th February. Inset time will be on Friday 18th, only teachers and contracted staff should attend. I hope you have an enjoyable half term holiday. School reopens on Monday 28th February.
