1. Thank you to the staff who attended and supported at this year’s Prom at the Hannafore Point Hotel last Friday. Special thanks to Mr Green for organising the marshalling. Thank you to Mr Kevern, Mrs Willars and Mrs Johns for the arrangements leading up to the evening and Mrs Hallworth and Dr Ollerenshaw for preparing students for their formal dancing.
2. Thank you to Mrs Casson and to those who supported the PSHCE day ‘Consequences’ last Friday for Year 8 and 9 students. A special thank you to Mrs Turon, Miss Martin and the Year 11 students who delivered the Cyber Bullying workshops.
3. We look forward to The Story Republic Residency week. We will be welcoming pupils from local primary schools together with a sharing event for parents/carers on Wednesday evening. This will be a chance to see the children’s writing and artwork exhibited alongside that of professional artists. During the event each school will perform the music they have created with Andy Baker from the Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra. Further details of the workshops can be found under notices.
4. Year 11 leavers should not be completing their leaving forms and handing in to reception. Staff should let reception know of any overdue or non-returned books by the end of the week.
5. Thank you to all for your support with exams which end on Monday. Particular thanks to Mrs Gavin and exam support staff.
6. We look forward to the CreatEd Awards Ceremony on Thursday at Falmouth University. This exhibition is a celebration of art, design, media, performance, writing and business work by GCSE students and post-16 students. The exhibition features projects from secondary schools and Further Education colleges throughout the South West. We have entries in the categories of textiles, art, resistant materials and creative writing.
