We are delighted to be hosting a Parent Workshop in partnership with Cornwall Dyslexia Service on Wednesday 20 January 2016 from 9.00am until 10.15am.

The workshop will explore Dyslexia and some of the key difficulties young people face with their learning. Further workshops will be discussed at this session and will be planned accordingly.

The first workshop will cover:

- A brief introduction to Dyslexia
- Support available in school
- How parents/carers can support students at home

There will be an opportunity to put ideas forward for future sessions as well as a chance for discussion with other parents.

If you would like to attend this first session please complete and return the slip below and return to Mrs Chapman before Monday 18 January.

Yours faithfully
