1. I am delighted with the presentation of students and improvement in uniform. Behaviour and attitude are improved and the learning atmosphere is really good. It is always a privilege to drop in to lessons but it is really pleasing to see the students so actively engaged in their learning. Thank you to staff, parents and students for embracing our renewed expectations. Uniform checks will continue this week. Please will everyone focus on this week's commitment of planning and organisation. Several students in Years 8 and 9 have incurred detentions for not doing homework; I would like them encouraged and reminded please.
2. Thank you for your support in preparation for Thursday's Open Evening. The building will be open for visitors, starting with my presentation in the Main Hall at 6pm. Student helpers should return to school for the start of the evening at 6pm. Letters are available from reception for permission from parents and carers for student Ambassadors who are helping. Please continue to prepare your department for the evening.
3. Thank you to Mr Damerell, Mr Keveth, Miss Wood, Mrs Palmer, Mr Gallihawk and Mr Hodges for presenting the Year 11 Parents' Information Evening – 'Helping your child succeed at GCSE' last Thursday.
4. Thank you to Mr Keveth for the INSET on "T4O" our "Toolkit for Outstanding Teaching" and to Mr Saddler for leading INSET on Circle Time for the PSHCE curriculum.
5. Thank you to Ms Turon and Mr Chapman for accompanying students to the Theatre Royal in Plymouth last Thursday. I was delighted to hear feedback again that the students were a credit to the school.
6. Thank you to Mrs Casson for her whole school assembly on 'Being a Good Neighbour'.
7. Congratulations to Clem Hocking for winning the Public Vote for Best Exhibit at the University of Falmouth DesignEd exhibition. This is in addition to Jessica Rudd winning the best GCSE textiles award last term. Another superb achievement for the school and thanks to Mrs Rowe for giving the students this opportunity.
8. Thank you to staff for their support and assistance last week during the photographs and artwork stage of our new prospectus. We will receive delivery of these this week.

9. Well done to the students and staff who preformed at the Looe Music Festival at the weekend.
10. Thank you for your ongoing patience and support while building work is underway and apologies for any inconvenience caused. We are liaising frequently with the contractors to ensure that the issues are resolved in the quickest possible time.
