1. Teaching staff have been engaging in mini action research projects, the reflection that has been done during this process has been brilliant, we look forward to sharing strategies that are shaping teaching and learning at the next INSET. This week we start the 'Open Door' fortnight where teachers get the opportunity to witness their peers delivering high quality teaching and learning strategies.
2. 'Book looks' for Key Stage 3 start this week in relation to the fortnightly teaching and learning focus on Dedicated Improvement Reflection Time.
3. Thank you to Brook for delivering sex and relationships education workshops to Year 11 students last week, we look forward to their return in the summer term. Thank you to Mr Deacon for supporting the workshops.
4. Year 11 Intervention starts on Monday. Students need to go to their normal tutor room to be registered in the morning then straight to their intervention groups. If students are unsure what they should be doing during the tutorial intervention groups, PSHCE time or EPR time please refer them to the class lists which are outside reception. Tutors also have copies. If students are unhappy about the groups they are in please ask them to speak to Mrs Birkbeck in the first instance.
5. We look forward to another Academy Arts trip on Wednesday to the Theatre Royal to watch Hairspray.
6. Please note that detentions will be in the Small Hall due to rehearsals for the production.
