1. Thank you to the police for delivering the drug awareness assemblies last week and for bringing along their passive drug dog. They will return to school for an unannounced visit when the dog will be ‘on duty’. . The dog will indicate anyone who has taken, is carrying or has been in close contact with others who may have illegal drugs. If any member of staff or any student has any concerns about anything relating to this please see me.
2. Thank you to Miss Haddleton for accompanying students to a Maths Masterclass at Plymouth University last Tuesday. Again our students were a credit to the Academy.
3. Thank you and well done to Mrs Gavin, Mrs White and Mr George for their contribution to the BTEC Quality Review last week which was successful.
4. Congratulations to Mrs Gavin also for a successful JCQ Access Arrangements inspection last week.
5. Thank you to Mr Pilling who will be running revision techniques and relaxed alertness sessions for Year 11 and 10 students each Monday at 3.20pm. See under notices for further details. Thanks also to those staff who have arranged revision classes for students in the run up to their exams.
6. Thank you to Leaders of Learning for the Curriculum, for sharing good practice about their teaching strategies for boys at last week’s meeting. There are action points from the meeting which need to be followed up, which include having a new assessment system in place for the new timetable in June.
7. Good luck to those students who are taking part in the Caradon Youth Games on Thursday.
8. Please be aware that there are Art exams this Wednesday and Friday and ask students to observe the exam zone and quiet notices around art.
