1. Mrs Wheadon our Examinations Officer leaves us this Friday for pastures new. We thank her for the excellent contribution she has made and wish her well for the future.
2. Thank you to Mr Bennett, the Looe Town Crier for his presentation during assembly last Tuesday for St Piran's Day. Thanks too to Mrs Casson for this.
3. Thank you to our guests last Wednesday who presented a special careers assembly. Thanks too to Mr George for organising this for Year 9 students.
4. Thank you and well done to the staff who dressed up as their favourite character to celebrate World Book Day last Thursday.
5. Well done to the Year 9 boys' football team who beat Brannel School 2:1 last Thursday and commiserations to the girls who lost 6:0 against Saltash.net.
6. Year 9 full reports will be posted to parents and carers this Wednesday. This will be followed by the parents'/carers' evening on Thursday 21 March where subject teachers will be available to meet by appointment. A copy of the Option choices book is on the Academy's website. Appointments will be coordinated by Miss Barker- staff and parents should send requests to her.
7. This Friday we will be holding a Mufti day in aid of Comic Relief. Mrs Casson will deliver a special assembly for this on Friday morning. Red noses will be on sale in the Library at breaktime and reception at lunchtime. Sponsor forms are available from Mrs Casson.
8. Very well done to Matthew Clowes in 8 PEN who competed in the Junior National Swimming Championships in Sheffield last weekend. I am delighted to report that he won gold in the 100m breast stroke, silver in the 50m freestyle and bronze in the 100m rely. Matthew and his team have now qualified as part of the British selection and will go to the International Championships in April.
9. Would Student Council representatives in each tutor group note that there is a meeting of the council this Tuesday at 1.30pm. It is important that representatives do attend these meetings which are fortnightly.
10. Marking scrutiny of Year 10 books continues this week.

11. On Thursday we will be holding Safer Internet sessions for parents and carers from 6pm, letters have been sent home and are also on the school website. Tutors please remind students to bring back reply slips with numbers attending. Years 8 and 9 have sessions from 12.30 and INSET for staff is from 3.30pm. See notices for further details or website.

Miss Jenkins, Headteacher
