- Mrs Jane Black, Head of Service for Cornwall Learning and Achievement, has written to me and would like me to pass on her thanks and congratulations to all staff and governors for the examination results this year which show year on year improvement in many categories. The LA is delighted that our results are so good and contributing so positively to the overall Cornwall picture. May I remind you all that in the new Progress 8 measure, the new value added figure for students, we are placed at the 16 percentile in the country. Well done everyone!
- Thank you to Mr Matthews for taking students to meet the Royal Society of Chemistry at Bodmin College last Friday.
- Thank you to Mr Riley and staff for the Year 8 parents'/carers' evening last week. Please ensure that any queries or concerns are followed up.
- Thank you for representatives from The Rotary Club for providing 'mock' interviews to our Year 11 students last week.
- Thanks to all of the teachers who attended the 'Teach Meet' on Friday with Mrs Jackman, keep an eye out for the new teaching and learning notice board in the staff room to access shared practice and top tips.
- Good luck to the students who are performing in the matinee of this year's Cornwall Secondary Drama Showcase – 'Kernow Tales: Tall and Small' at Hall for Cornwall on Monday. Thank you to Mrs Turon and the staff who are supporting this.
- The GCSE textiles group are doing a recycling project and would be grateful for any unwanted items of clothing that you have. If you can help please pass these to Mrs Rowe.
