Bulletin Notices from Miss Jenkins

1. Congratulations to David George on his appointment to Work-Related Learning Coordinator
2. Many thanks to the maths department for teaching extra classes last week for the linear paper and to staff for being understanding with these changes.
3. Thank you to Mr Damerell, Miss Wood, Mr Pilling for meeting with Mr Jamil Eshtaya, from the Ministry of Education & Higher Education in Palestine; we look forward to the connecting classrooms project
4. Thank you to the Chair of Governors and students Jenna Faulkner & Tim Sidnell for attending the wreath laying ceremony with me at Looe War Memorial last Sunday.
5. Thank you to teaching staff for meeting within your working groups last Tuesday. Following a meeting with the LA Secondary Improvement Manager, I am in a position to bid for money from the LA in order to raise aspirations, change culture and raise results. I suggest the chairs of the working parties meet individually with me to discuss your outline plans and match plans to new funding.
6. Year 10 Interim reports are due in on Friday 19th November.
7. Duty teams –please focus at end of team on quiet assembly of bus lines and exit from school and all staff re-enforce a quiet reception area where students do not mingle and chat.
8. Staffing update: The following vacancies have been circulated to staff; Attendance Administrator, Admin/Clerical Assistant and Reprographics Technician. The closing date is Friday 19th November.

Bulletin Notices

Thanks to Mr Chapman and Mrs Kevern for assisting me with taking the GCSE Drama students to see Twelfth Night at the Brewhouse Theatre in Taunton last Friday, Miss Turon.

Forthcoming Notice

Major Norman Walker will be talking to students from Year 10 and 11 during period 4 on 25th November about the Kashmir Earthquake. Mr Pilling.
