1. Thank you to Miss Dixon and students for promoting the Academy in conjunction with the Daily Mail newspaper. As part of the PSHCE curriculum a group of Year 9 students spent a week trying to survive without modern technology after having read an article in the Daily Mail titled 'four-year-old receiving treatment for iPad addiction'. The group of students were horrified at the story and set out to prove that we as a nation can survive without technology. They wrote to the Daily Mail to state this and said that 'as a group of 13-14 year olds we ourselves were born into the technology age and if anyone should do this experiment it ought to be us'. The Daily Mail came into school last Thursday to take the photographs to accompany the article, which we look forward to reading.
2. I am pleased to announce that Miss Wood will become the Acting Head of Performing Arts to cover for Miss Goodwin while she is on maternity leave.
3. Welcome to Miss Kelly who joins us to cover for Mrs Turon's maternity leave and also to Miss Stone who will cover in Dance for Miss Goodwin.
4. The Year 10 Rounders team played last Tuesday against Callington Community College winning by 2 Rounders. Well done to the team. Thank you also to Miss Curtis.
5. Early lunch will be on Monday and Tuesday this week.
6. Teaching staff, please indicate preference for classes for lesson observations this half term by replying to my email request.
7. Year 11 Prom is Friday 28 June, students arriving for 7.30pm. Staff wishing to support at any part of the evening please sign up in the staffroom and if joining for the formal meal pay and give menu choices to Mrs Johns.
8. Skinny fit trousers are not school uniform; trousers should be tailored. See planner for full details. Uniform checks will continue to be carried out this week and letters sent home.
