Bulletin - Week 6

Monday 10 October – Friday 14 October 2011

1. Thank you to Mr Crean, Miss Curtis and Mr Lewis (Governor) for running the Duke of Edinburgh expedition to Nine Ashes Camp, Bodmin with 22 students this weekend. They all had a great time. Thank you also to Cornwall Outdoors for supporting this event.
2. Thank you to Mr Chapman, Dr Ollerenshaw and Ms Dixon for leading free assembly on Friday which was superb! Good to hear everyone singing. Although I was at a conference on Friday I did hear the singing of the school song via a mobile phone link. Well done all!
3. Year 10 and 11 Interim reports open on Monday. Would teaching staff please ensure they are completed by Friday 21 October.
4. The deadline for January GCSE entry is Friday 14 October. Would staff please ensure Mrs Wheadon has this information in good time. Late entry fees will be charged to departments.
5. We are advertising for a Teacher of Dance and a Teaching Assistant this week. See the website for further information.
6. We are looking for someone to run an after school Homework Club each day from 3.15-4.15pm. This will be as an additional contract (Grade E). An internal advert will be posted. Further details from Mr Green or Mrs Howorth.
7. At this week's House meetings on Wednesday we need a discussion about the possible types of activities and House challenges that we could run. We would also like a number of 'House staff' to be elected. We need a member of the teaching staff to volunteer to be the 'House Leader', two House Captains (male and female), two Challenge Captains (male and female) and House Mentors (up to 4 students – possibly some may have been involved in the training by Mr Saddler).
8. Welcome to Ms Wood, a Maths PGCE Teacher from Marjon who will be joining us from Monday.
9. Science department review continues this week.
10. New Ofsted framework in draft format, but not expected to change, is available from Ofsted website, for inspections from January 2012.

I can monitor the effectiveness of different problem-solving strategies and use my experiences to help me choose my behaviour and make decisions

Seal Outcome 48

Monday – Fiji became independent after of nearly a century of British rule (1973), Birthday of Giuseppe Verdi (1813)
